

QUEEN DRAGA STRIKES KING.

Servia's Ruler Gets His Ears Boxed in a Quarrel Between Royal Pair Over Money.

COURTIERS PART THEM.

Alexander Hits Back, and as Reconciliation Seems Impossible, a Separation Is Regarded as Probable.

BELGRADE, Servia, Oct. 8.—King Alexander and Queen Draga have had more trouble, blows figuring in a recent quarrel between them, and a separation of the royal pair is predicted, the King having had his ears soundly boxed.

Alexander, owing to financial difficulties, recently stopped Queen Draga's pin money, amounting to about $40 a month. This enraged the Queen, and she created a scene before the courtiers, finally becoming so violent that she had to be restrained, the King's attendants fearing harm to him.

Soon after this occurrence the King tried to borrow money from the Queen, and on being refused accused Queen Draga of endangering the throne and declared she was the cause of his life. The Queen answered by denouncing him and, as stated, using such coarse language that courtiers had to retire from the room. Left alone with the King, Queen Draga worked herself into a rage, ending by boxing the ears of Servia's ruler. She followed this with several blows, and the King in defending himself struck her violently on the arm. The attendants had to interfere again, and the Queen was led to her chambers. There seems little chance of a reconciliation between the pair, and court circles predict an early separation.

REIS'S FALL WAS FATAL.

Tumbled from Window While Talking to Visitors.

Michael Reis, manager of Hahn's restaurant, at Seventy-fifth street and Columbus avenue, was found lying on the sidewalk in front of his home, No. 125 Edgecombe avenue, having fallen from the third-story window. He died an hour later at the J. Hood Wright Hospital.

Reis was a widower and leaves two daughters and a son. He had been suffering from asthma. His brother, Samuel, and Julius Leopold, of No. 221 Columbus avenue, visited him last night, and the three were talking in his room when he arose and went to the window. When they looked for him he was gone, and an instant later a policeman informed them that he was lying unconscious below, having fallen from the window.

AFTER LONG CHASE FORGER IS CAUGHT.

Accomplished Criminal Leads the Police for 6,000 Miles, but May Spend Rest of Life in Prison.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 9.—After having led the police a chase of 6,000 miles L. O. Hoffman, one of the country's most accomplished burglars, has begun a four-year sentence for forgery.

Hoffman is one of the most remarkable criminals of the twentieth century. He is brilliant, accomplished, handsome and has a soft, persuading voice that has aided him more than once in his nefarious schemes.

His real name is William J. Reid, and his home is in Rockford, Ill. He has been arraigned for forgery, embezzlement and attempted murder, but has never before been convicted of anything. It would seem, however, that Hoffman is doomed to spend the rest of his life in prison. Not only has he been sentenced to four years at Springfield for forging a letter of credit, but he is wanted in Chicago on three charges of forgery and in other cities on various charges.

Double Midnight Negro Lynching. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 9.—Two negroes were lynched at Newbern, Tenn., at midnight of last night.

The Wanamaker Store.

Modern Specialism in Shoes
If we could open the book of Shoe history to the eyes of the public, some remarkable things would be demonstrated. Things that are well known facts among the shoe trade, but not familiar to the public.

Of course the public knows, though not quite so positively as does the trade, that the greatest retail shoe business in America is done by the Wanamaker Stores in New York and Philadelphia.

But the reasons for this greatness, and the Wanamaker influences that have formulated advancement in shoemaking during recent years, are not so well known.

For instance, when chrome tanned leather was first introduced, it was Wanamaker's that gave it prompt recognition; and demanded it in Wanamaker's Shoes. Others followed, until its use became universal.

Wanamaker's was first in recognizing the merits of oak-tanned sole leather; and for many years no other leather has been used in the soles of Wanamaker Shoes at any price.

Today some manufacturers are exploiting oak soles as unusual—though they have been the tradition of many years at Wanamaker's. Those who remember the opening days of Wanamaker's in this old Stewart Store will perhaps recall the cut-up shoes that told the inside goodness of Wanamaker Shoes; and years before the same open intelligence was given at our Philadelphia store.

This is merely illustrative of the feeling in the trade toward Wanamaker's. The leadership that is acknowledged and followed continuously.

It has all been for the betterment of shoemaking. We have stimulated others to make honest shoes; others have spurred us to still greater efforts.

Today Wanamaker Shoe leadership is still supreme. Vast government contracts attest it. Our unmatched retail shoe business is the public testimonial to the economy and betterness of Wanamaker Shoes.

We have exceptional Shoes for women at $1.60 a pair; for men at $2.40 a pair. But more decisive in value, because of the high-grade leathers in them, and the beautiful styles in which they are made, are the

Wanamaker-Wearwell Shoes for Men
Wanamaker-Reliable Shoes for Women
At $3 a Pair

In each line there is broadest variety of styles and leathers; and both men's and women's shoes are guaranteed to be better than the widely-exploited shoes sold at $3.50, though the Wanamaker shoes cost a half-dollar less. The Wanamaker $3.90 Shoes for men cannot be matched under five dollars.

Wanamaker $5 Shoes for men and women cannot be matched for less than a dollar more, and many seven-dollar shoes are almost identical.

The same goodness, the same economy follows in the lines of Wanamaker Shoes for girls, boys and children. And the selection is as broad as the limits of worthy and stylish shoes can be pushed.

For people at a distance unable to come to our store, we have now on the press a large catalogue, illustrating and describing the Wanamaker Shoes, and telling how easy it is to buy shoes by mail. We shall be glad to mail it as soon as published to all who send us their names and addresses. To be sure of getting the new catalogue, ask for Shoe Catalogue No. 25.

Saks & Company

SPECIALISTS IN APPAREL FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

OUR FIRST SPECIAL SALE. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10TH.

At the very outset we wish to state, once for all time, that a statement relative to either the merchandise or its cost will be the simple, unvarnished truth. You may put your faith in it, confident to find the article described at the price quoted. When we say "special," you may take us literally, word for word—it will be SPECIAL. And when we declare some article of our regular stock to be of unusual value, believe that, too. There must be a very good reason, else we will not say so. There will be no deviation from the standard for the sake of a "sale." The article will be of the Saks standard, no matter when it is offered or at what price.
